

BALTIC SUMMER SCHOOL 2019

SATURDAY, 22 JUNE

VENUE: Baltic Beach Hotel, Hall Jūra, Jūras iela 23/25, Majori, Jūrmala

Guest Faculty: David Iosseliani (Russia), Hubertus Degen (Germany), Sunao Nakamura (Japan), David Taggart (United Kingdom).

- 09:30 – 09:40      Welcome
Andrejs Erglis, MD, PhD, FESC, FACC (Latvia)
- 09:40 – 10:00      Imaging guided PCI for LMT and CTO
Sunao Nakamura, MD, PhD, FESC, FACC (Japan)
- 10:00 – 10:20      Simultaneous endovascular closure of ASD and stenting of coronary arteries - a necessity or a demonstration of surgeon's skills
David Iosseliani, MD, FESC (Russia)
- 10:20 – 10:40      The ART trial at 10 years: implications for multiple arterial grafts during CABG
David Taggart, MD, PhD, FRCS (UK)
- 10:40 – 11:00      RMS update, experience with next generation scaffold
Hubertus Degen, MD, PhD (Germany)
- 11:00 – 11:20      Intrahospital and long-term outcomes after bifurcation stenting
Arnis Laduss, MD (Latvia)
Indulis Kumsars, MD, PhD (Latvia)
- 11:20 – 11:40      Coffee break
- 11:40 – 12:00      Double mammary - will it become the gold standard of coronary revascularisation?
Martins Kalejs, MD (Latvia)
- 12:00 – 12:20      The future of coronary artery complete restoration with bioresorbable scaffolds
Ieva Briede, MD (Latvia)
- 12:20 – 12:40      Unsuccessful CTO cases still exists. New devices- new solutions
Dace Sondore, MD (Latvia)
- 12:40 – 13:00      Circulating MicroRNAs as Potential Biomarkers for Plaque Vulnerability
Karlis Trusinskis, MD, PhD (Latvia)
- 13:10 – 14:10      Lunch